Troops and Citizens Clash As Sequel to Greek Election

ALLIES INTERESTED

Declares France and Britain Will Seek to Prevent Constantine's Return

Athens, Nov. 17.—Troops fired from a number of points on several occasions yesterday to disperse after election troublemakers. There are fears of further trouble which may lead to martial law, and there is said to be danger that the army may get out of hand.

The stores, banks and theatres were closed and soldiers patroled the streets, The population was keeping close, not taking the risk of leaving their homes.

The disorders began with a parade of opposition adherents to attack the Liberal Club. Troops stationed within the club quarters fired upon the marchers.

The military later attacked the opposition headquarters, from which a few shots came. For two hours the headquarters were besieged and bombarded by the troops. A number of bystanders were wounded.

Troops are guarding the public places and the homes of the leaders of both sides.

Premier Venizelos' Cabinet resigned early yesterday, and Admiral Coundouriotis the Regent of Greece, has sent for George Rhallis, to whom it is expected will be entrusted the formation of a new Ministry.

M. Rhallis is 80 years old, his last public office being that of Minister of Finance in the Zaimis Cabinet in 1916. Previous to that time he took a prominent part in Greek politics.

The complete victory of the opposition seemed almost certain last night, although final results were still lacking. Even leaders of the elements opposed to Premier Venizelos in the elections held on Sunday were surprised by the showing their candidates had made in Macedonia and Attaca.

It is said M. Venizelos will leave the country, and he has advised Liberals to abide by the verdict of the people.

Demetrios Goumaris leader of the opposition, has declared the foreign policy of Greece will not be changed.

Latest returns from the election give the supporters of M. Venizelos 118 Deputies against 250 Royalists.

M. Venizelos and all but two of his Ministers were beaten. None of the Venizelost candidates was elected in Greece and Macedonia, with the exception of Epirus and the Aegean Islands.

Two persons were killed by shots fired from houses facing the Foreign Office yesterday. It was declared that reactionary elements were responsible for the firing. Armed police rushed to the scene and a lively fusillade resulted.

Paris, Nov. 17.—With the defeat of Premier Venizelos regarded by the French Foreign Office as certain, it is said the position of France and Great Britain with regard to former King Constantine is very clearly against his return and that both Powers are determined to do everything possible to prevent it.

Great Britain and France, it is indictated, will act together, but will await some indication of Constantine's intention to return. Should that be manifested, they will then do whatevtr may be necessary.

It was declared today at the Foreign Office that France would take all possible steps to keep the ex-King off the throne. The question of the return of former Crown Prince George had not yet been raised, it was added.

"The defeat of Premier Venizelos," a Foreign Office statement said, "may be termed a display of gros singratitude by the Greeks for the man who brought the country to the Allies' side and greatly increased its size, power and influence and this view is shared by the Allies. It was a great shock to the Allies."

BERNSTORFF ATTENDS LEAGUE MEETING

Former Ambassador to U. S., Will Discuss His Country's Admission

CLASH OVER METHODS

Lord Robert's Efforts For Full Publication is Defeated—Secret Meeting Vetoed

Geneva, Nov. 17—Germany's admission to the League of Nations, a question that was injected into the discussions at yesterday's initial sessions of the assembly, will be discussed in conference with leaders of enterte and neutral delegations by Count von Bernstorff, former Ambassador to Washington, who is coming here for that special purpose.

Professor Krauss, Germany's official observer at the assembly sessions said yesterday that Von Bernstorff would arrive the last of this week or the first of next about the time that Lloyd George is due in Geneva. Professor Krauss added that Von Bernstorff undoubtedly would confer with the British Premier relative to the admission of Germany to the League.

I understand that Great Britain has obtained France's consent to a resolution declaring that Germany's presence in the League would be desirable and inviting to her to forward an application for admission. The exact form, however, of the assembly's invitation to Germany or its pledge not to refuse her application, as the case may be, has not yet been decided.

Geneva, Nov. 17.—How far the principle of open discussions might apply to the work of the assembly of the League of Nations was a question which furnished the feature of yesterday's sessions. It brought into contest for the first time in a sharp debate two of the chief figures among the delegates. Lord Robert Cecil, representing South Africa, contended for open meetings of the committees, as well as of the full assembly. Rene Viviani, of the French delegation, stoutly defended the Parliamentary tradition of private committee work, with subsequent publication of the minutes. His views prevailed after a prolonged discussion.

A compromise finally was reached between the two whereby the committees will be permitted to hold open sessions when they see fit, the minutes of the deliberations to be published as soon as possible after the sessions.

Signor Tittoni, Italy, M. Viviani, Lord Robert Cecil and George Nicoll Barnes engaged in another lively clash after recess over the proposed rule that questions on the agenda should be considered in the assembly with the committees before the latter deliberated. Mr. Barnes called attention to the importance of committees having the views of the assembly on such important matters before they began work.

STORK FAILED TO GET BUSY AND SEERESS IS JACKED UP

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Her alleged power to peer into the future failed to aid Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell, 43 years old, of No. 782 Walnut street, Camden, yesterday when she was taken into custody by Detective Hunt as a result of a charge made by Mrs. Mary Shahol, of Reebling. Mrs. Mitchell is charged with violating the law which prohibits the telling of fortunes or of devling into the future. She furnished $100 cash bail for a hearing before Recorder Stackhouse Friday.

It is alleged by Mrs. Shahol that she went to the seeress some weeks ago because her business as a midwife was falling off. She avers that Mrs. Mitchell agreed to let her have a caul for $200 with the promise it would so better conditions by way of making the stork busy at Roebling that she would have plenty to do. Instead the business became worse and to all appearances the stork passed up the town entirely. Then Mrs. Shahol made a demand on Mrs. Mitchell for return of the $200. After some argument, $100 was returned, but the balance of $90 was refused. The warrant then resulted.

With the warrant in his pocket Detective Hunt went to the Mitchell home where his "fortune" was told by Mrs. Mitchell, during which the sleuth learned many amazing things. At the end and after he had paid her $1, he asked the alleged seeress if she knew who he was. She failed to recognize him and collapsed when he announced he was a detective with a warrant for her arrest.

Nor had Mrs. Mitchell discerned by her occult powers that all the while she was telling Detective Hunt his fortune Detective King was just around the corner with an automobile waiting to take her to the city hall. In fact it was all such a revelation to her that she altogether lost her equanimity.

Successful Dance

400 Persons Enjoy Hospitality of Elks

Whenever Alexandria Lodge of Elks does anything it generally does it right. This was best illustrated last night at their first complimentary dance of the season given in the auditorium of its home which was one of the biggest and best ever given by that organization.

Four hundred persons enjoyed the hospitality of the local lodge and all were loud in their praise of its success. During the evening refreshments were served.

The hall was tastefully decorated and the decorations being furnished by D. G. Grillbortzer, president of the Washington Floral Company and the other decorations by A. Kenneth Baker. The music was furnished by Jacoby's orchestra of Washington.

MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD HERE

Dollar Day Swamps Merchants Despite Morning Rain

STORES THRONGED

Buying Public Procures Big Bargains—Many Sold Out of Offerings—General Satisfaction Expressed

Dozens of Alexandria men evidently went dinnerless today when hundreds of women forgot time, place and everything except the fact that today was DOLLAR DAY and reveled from morning until night in the feast of bargains that had been prepared for their consumption.

Shortly before noon today it looked as if Jupiter Pluvius had entered into a conspiracy with old High Cost of Living to keep the big crowd of Dollar Day shoppers indoors during the afternoon at least. However, he evidently decided to be good and shortly after noon, the drizzle that had started in the morning subsided and the sun shone upon the many bargain seekers who still thronged the city stores and streets.

The biggest Dollar Day Sale ever held in this city. This was the version of every one of the twenty-five merchants who took an active part in the big event and it has been marked by little or no confusion in any of the city stores. The crowds were waiting in many instances, for the opening of the doors of the various stores this morning and those merchants who had only a limited stock of Dollar Day articles, were soon out of the running and screenly happy over the outcome of the bargain event.

Dollar Day has been growing on each occasion and the merchants of Alexandria are very well pleased over the fact that the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has decreed that four Dollar Day Sales shall be held each year.

Expressions of utmost satisfaction were heard from every side this morning, the men's stores being extremely busy as well as the stores selling women's wearing apparel. The mammoth crowd of shoppers was pretty evenly distributed, the majority of them making purchases in a number of stores instead of confining their attentions to any one particular shop.

Dollar Day bargains, should there be any left at closing time tonight, will be sold in the various stores tomorrow. This was the concensus of opinion expressed by the various merchants when the rain started this morning, but it is expected that real values will be scarce when the doors of the many establishments taking part in the sale close on today's business.

NEW OFFENSIVE AGAINST REDS PLANS

British, French and Belgian Interests Reported Behind Scheme

CAUCASUS ROUTE

Gen. Townsend Suggested as Leader of Anti Soviet Crusade—Sought Two U. S. Officers.

London, Nov. 17.—General Baron Wrangel, the anti-Bolsheviki leader in South Russia, has arrived in Constantinople on the Russian Cruiser Korniloff, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Constantinople.

Paris, Nov. 17.—There is not the slightest indication as yet that official France will change its stand on the Russian problem as a result of the disaster to General Wrangel, although even the newspapers which have warmly supported the Millerand policy show symptoms of profound chagrin at the sudden collapse of the German expedition.

That General Wrangel's defeat is regarded here rather in the light of one of a series of episodes in the counter-revolutionary war, and that future exploits are still expected to yield better fruit, if the lessons of former campaigns are kept in mind, is realized from the fact that at the moment when the Red cavalry were smashing their way through Wrangel's last defense on the Perekop section, another scheme was being promoted in Paris whereby Russia was to be liberated from the incubus of bolshevism.

That General Townshend, of Kut-el-Amara fame, whom General Wrangel recently prized to come to the Crimea to take command, was meant to assume charge of the new campaign is probable, according to information obtained.

With the base this time upon Erzerum, in Turkish Armenia, and backed by an important group of French, Belgian and British coal and iron interests, the proposed crusade was to take the Caucasus route, traversing Turkish and Russian Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia and Kuban and Don Cossack territories to reach at last the coveted El Dorado of the Danetz basin, in Southern Russia.

Among the advantages this march across the Caucasus mountains northward would possess over Denekine's and Wrangel's campaigns, would be: First, the possibility of conciliating the Caucasus population with the Russian "liberation" movement by granting each community a generous measure of independence instead of having to fight them simultaneously with the principal enemy at Moscow and, second, the possession of the Armenian cotton crops, the Kuban grain and the Bau oil fields, the last with the hope of running an oil pipe line to Batoum.

With the good will of these people assured by this policy of conciliation and with the raw materials of the Baku and Donetz provinces and Kuban wheat and Armenian cotton at their disposal for export and exchange for uniforms and munitions, the organizers of the new scheme, it is learned, hoped to be in a better position than any previous anti-Bolshevik leaders to march on Moscow. This, especially, because they planned to confine their route northward to the strip between the Don Volga, these rivers protecting respectively the left and right wings of the expedition.

That this secret of a proposed military expdition by way of Turkish Armenia is emerging to the light of day, is due principally to the circum-

MAKE GREECE DISGORGE

The Supreme Allied Council, or the League of Nations, or some authority, should make Greece disgorge the extensive gains which Eleutherios Venizelos secured for it. It is a monstrous perversion of justice that Greece should profit extensively by the labors of the Cretan statesman, and then dismiss him.

If it had not been for Venizelos Greece would have got into the war on the German side, and it would now be in the position of Bulgaria or Turkey. Venizelos too khis life in his hands when he undertook to defeat the policies of the brother-in-law of William II. But he succeeded in ousting Constantine; he reorganized the Greek army and put it into the war on the winning side. It was the 250,000 Greek troops added to the Saloniki army that forced the collapse of Bulgaria, isolating Turkey and opening a way for attacking the Dual Monarchy from the South.

That Greece is not now one of the defeated nations, subject to a heavy indemnity, is due to Venizelos. But the Greek statesman did a great deal more than this. Greece was too small to cut an imposing figure at the peace conference, or later, before the Supreme Allied Council. But Venizelos had established his reputation as one of the ablest and wisest statesmen in Europe, and, watching his chances, antagonizing no one, except the common enemies, and seizing every opportunity, he advanced Greek interests wonderfully.

He succeeded in getting for Greece almost the whole of Thrace, up to the boundary line of the small remnant of European Turkey. He got for Greece Smyrna and the country back of it, and the authority of the Supreme Allied Council to fight against the Turkish National sta. Thus Greece, which has long dreamed of the resuscitation of the Greek Empire with its capital in Byzantium, is now within measurable distance of that end. Its forces are on both sides of Constantinople and at no great distance. The next time something happens to the remnant of the decadent Turk Greece will be in Constantinople, and the age-long dream of Greece will be realized, because Venizelos dared to antagonize King Constantine and succeeded in saving Greece from him.

And in return for the immense advantages Venizelos secured for Greece, the country repudiates him. Justice demands that the country be compelled to give up Thrace and Smyrna. Even then it would retain much that the statesman whom it has dismissed obtained for it.

Eggs With Shells on and Four Herring in Champion's Meal

Chicago, Nov. 17.—John Bongo, of West Hammond, yesterday broke all records as a consumer of food, and the town has proclaimed him the world's champion. After boasting of his appetite, John agreed to give a public demonstration of his capacity in Kosciusko hall, if some affluent promoter of indoor sports would provide the feed.

His terms were agreed to, and here is what John put away at one sitting:

Twenty-seven feet of pork sausage, 5 pounds of raw beefsteak, three eggs with shells on four dried herring and 1 gallon of beer (home brew).

Having washed down the last morsel, John buttoned up his coat and remarked: "Well, I guess I will go down town and get a little something to eat."

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 17.—Miss Ethel Clay came here from Brownsville to visit friends. While she was going down Antietam street a man grabbed her handbag with one hand and slapped her in the face, nearly knocking her down. She held to her handbag and grabbing a long pin from her hat, jabbed the man several times. The attacker howled, released his hold and fled down an alley.

Fred E. Byers was attacked by three men while going to his home on Locust street, knocked down and beaten into unconsciousness and robbed of $32.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaughts will hold football practice at 6 o'clock this evening at Armory Hall and the management requests the presence of every member of the squad. Coach Billy Crouch will drive the big "D" lads hard tonight, as the locals will be up against the strongest club in this section, Sunday, lead by Lieut. Vidal, all American man, who has lined up several more West Point teammates of the crack Army eleven of 1916. Tonight's practice will not be open to the public.

The first basketball practice was held by the Dreadnaughts in the Armory last night, and despite the inclement weather some good work was accomplished. From all indications this year's quint will be superior to last season's crack five, which won the city championship and Spalding cup. The next workout will be held Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

STOVE POLISH BLAST KILLS

Contents of Bottle Flash, Enveloping Woman in Flames

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 17.—Mrs. John Goeltz, of Minersville, was killed by an explosion of stove polish today. She was using the polish, having the bottle in her hand, and poured out a small quantity of it, when the entire contents went up in flames, enveloping her body and causing her clothes to catch fire. Neighbors rolled her to extinguish the flames and it was thought she was not fatally injured, but an examination of her lungs showed she had inhaled the flames. She was 62 years of age.

Why You Should Use Lightning

(1) A noticeable increase in mileage is apparent the instant you use LIGHTNING exclusively. More miles per gallon at less cost per mile!

(2) Increased Power

Exhaustive road tests under every conceivable condition have proved the increased power of LIGHTNING. Where formerly frequent gear shifting was found necessary on hills, Lightning carries you up most grades on high with a smooth, comforting power-impulse.

(3) Freedom from Carbon Troubles.

Because Lightning can be used with an excess of air in the cylinders, hard carbon deposits are almost instantly removed—a condition not possible with gasoline. Hence Lightning will not "knock" and carbon trouble is prevented, keeping your motor up to full efficiency at all times.

(4) Readily Available Everywhere.

So great has been the demand for this new motor fuel that in a few short months we have been compelled to establish service stations throughout the country, so that no matter where you are—whether on city street or village highway—there is a LIGHTNING station near you.

Don't Stand in Your Own Way

People With Thin, Weak Blood Have A Hard Time of it. They Should Take Pepto-Mangan

Look at the facts of your health. So much depends on having red blood. If you stand up in front of your work with half-starved blood in your system you are standing in your own way. You are blocking your own progress.

Thin blood makes you dull. It makes you pale. You take no enjoyment out of your work. It is only half as good as it should be.

You can remedy that condition so easily. Begin taking that fine tonic, Pepto-Mangan, today and keep it up for awhile. Your blood will become nourished. Pepto-Mangan makes red blood corpuscles. You will get energy and strong power of resistance. Instead of standing in your own way, you will push yourself ahead because of greater vitality.

But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. It is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name is on the package. The tablets or the liquid have the same medicinal value.

SOCIAL UNIT PLAN DROPPED

Cincinnati, Ohio., Nov. 17.—The Social Unit, established in the Brighton-Mohawk district in Cincinnati four years ago, with $185,000 pledged by local citizens and New Yorkers, abandoned its mission today after a stormy career.

Mayor Galvin attacked the unit, calling it socialistic and Bolshevistic, and an investigation was not favorable. There was criticism that it should receive funds for the war chest and when funds became exhausted a drive for more failed. The experiment attracted nation-wide interest. Other social service agencies will undertake the activities of the unit.

The Social Unit's plan was to centralize all activities of a community within the community, with ultimate extension of the same general plan to the city, to the State and eventually to the nation.

Judge Refuses Divorce; Advises Pastor to Quit Low-Paid Job

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 17.—It is extreme cruelty for a minister to remain in his pulpit at $93 a month when he had a wife and five children to support, Judge Frank C. Phillips declared in an opinion handed down, in a divorce suit filed by the Rev. Benjamin A. Sherwin against his wife yesterday.

Judge Phillips refused to grant a divorce and ordered that Sherwin pay his wife $60 a month alimony. Custody of their five children was given to Mrs. Sherwin.

"An able-bodied man, such as you are, should have taken up some other profession," Judge Phillips declared.

Sherwin now has secured employment as a machinist.

16 Kentucky Miners Trapped By Fire in Earlington Mine

Earlington, Ky., Nov. 17.—A fire near the opening of the Arnold mine half a mile east of here, has imprisoned sixteen men, and, with the conflagration growing in extent, little hope entertained of rescuing them.

The fire, which was discovered late yesterday afternoon, started from defective wiring in a room near the opening and quickly spread. The Arnold is a drift mine, with no shafts, which makes rescue possible only through the one opening. The fire can be heard blazing under the ground and smoke is pouring forth in large volumes.

The party entrapperd, consisting of three white men and thirteen negroes is three miles back from the entrance and it is feared that the men will be suffocated by the thick smoke.

All attempts at rescue thus far have been without result.

While sitting on a bench the girl remarked to Christie that she would end it all." A few minutes later she swallowed three tablets. French Cabinet Approves Cut In Term of Military Service

Paris, Nov. 17.—The French Cabinet yesterday approved in principle measures calling for eighteen months' compulsory military service.

The reduction of the term is not to be immediately applicable. It is to become effective after an indeterminate period, teh length of which will depend upon the foreign situation and the state of the national defense.

Andre Lefere, the Minister of War, indicated his desire to resign, when the Cabinet opposed his view that the eighteen months' term of service should not be considered now He had favored the two year term. Premier Leygues, however, advised him to remain, and the resignation of the War Minister is not yet effective.

GAS KILLS MAN AND WOMAN; LATTER IS NOT IDENTIFIED

Philadelphia, Nov. 17. — Thomas Carlin, 40 years old, and an unidentified woman were found dead last night in a room thick with the fumes of escaping gas on the third floor of a boarding house on Green street near Ninth. A gas stove in the room was turned on full, and the doors and windows were closed.

The discovery was made by Thomas Murphy, a fellow-boarded. They were taken to the Hahnemann Hospital by the police of the Eighth district and pronounced dead.

The deaths are believed to have been accidental. The gas is supplied through a slot meter, and the police say that sometime Sunday night the stove went out because of lack of gas. Later in the night a quarter ran dropped in the meter, renewing the supply.

Carlin came to the boarding-house November 3. He and the woman were last seen Sunday night.

IT HELPED ME WHEN OTHER MEDICINES FAILED

Both Appetite and Strength Restored by Chasco-Vin the Strength Creating Tonic

"Acting on the advice of friends I turned to Chasco-Vin in sheer desperation after a long period of doctoring. My appetite had completely gone and this along with lack of good blood left me completely run down.

But just as my friends predicted I soon felt a change coming over me. Soon I began to eat, my strength gradually returned and I also felt the return of rich red blood that gave me new vim.

Indeed this wonderful tonic just made me all over again after so many others had failed. It is because of this great change that I gladly recommended Chasco-Vin, it really would not be fair for me not to do so." Mrs. Geo. Miller, Lebanon, Pa.

HUNT MURDER SUSPECT AFTER DARING FLIGHT

Broken Bow, Neb., Nov. 17.—An armed posse yesterday searched the surrounding country here for Bennie Chester, accused of the murder of Florence Barton, Kansas City society girl. Chester escaped from detectives taking him to Kansas City by jumping through a car window as his train pulled out of the station here.

Search was also made for a confederate who fired several shots from the depot to cover Chester's escape. A detective was sitting with Chester when the prisoner jumped through the closed window. Before they could take up the chase the three detectives accompanying Chester were carried half a mile beyond the scene of the escape. The detectives fired at Chester from the train, one of the bullets knocking off his hat.

NEEDS 1,000,000 NEW HOMES

Senator Kenyon, of the Senate committee investigating housing conditions throughout the nation, upon his return to Washington yesterday, said the shortage in homes in the nation would amount to 1,000,000. As one means for meeting the situation, Senator Kenyon said, a Federal home loan bank should be established.

The housing situation in the District of Columbia, Senator Kenyon declared, could be relieved by moving from the Capital such departments as could function elsewhere.

ACTRESSES' ESCORTS JAILED

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Three men, alleged to have accompanied Marie Ramey and Lillian Thompson, two actresses, whose bodies were found in Grant Park Sunday morning, on a cabaret tour the night before were arrested yesterday afternoon by detectives. The police refused to divulge the names of the prisoners.

The men were arrested on information supplied to Policewomen Anna Louches, who told her story to Chief of Police Fitzmorris, and was assigned to assist in the case. The police believe the men had accomplices, and are endeavoring to locate other suspects.

After questioning by the police the men under arrest are said to have admitted that they accompanied the women on the night before their death. Chief of Detectives Hughes said the men denied any implication in the actresses' death.

After the men had made statements, which were withheld by the police, Chief Hughes declared it was his belief that the young women came to their deaths through exposure and alcohol poisoning. Police believe that the mystery surrounding the death of the women has been solved, and before tomorrow additional arrests will be made, clearing up the whole case.

William Harris, a chauffeur, who surrendered to the police, told them he drove the women and two men on a joy ride Saturday night and that when the women became boisterous they were taken to Grant Park and thrown out of the machine.

The two men were arrested late yesterday and admitted, according to the police, that they "picked up" the actresses early in the evening and took them on a round of the cabarets Later, the police quote the men as saying, they left the women with Harris in his machine. They denied any brutality. Their names were not divulged by the police.

Chemists who had been making post mortem examinations of the bodies made a report to Chief of Detectives Hughes which resulted in an announcement from him that he believed "alcohol and exposure were the only causes of the deaths."

TAMPA WOMAN WAS IN CONSTANT MISERY

Mrs. Graves Suffered For Years From Rheumatism Asserts Every Pain Disappeared Soon After Taking Tanlac

"It is such a relief to be free from rheumatism that I just can't tell how happy I feel," said Mrs. Mary E. Graves, Box 269, R. F. D. 3, Tampa, Fla.

"For many years I had been troubled with rheumatism. About two years ago my left shoulder and knee began to swell and hurt so bad I could hardly stand it. My left wrist also swelled up and pained me so much that I just had to keep a bandage around it all the time. My arm hurt continually and I couldn't turn over in bed or hardly make a move at all without being in pain. I used so much liniment that my whole arm was blistered, but all I could get was just a little temporary relief.

"I had about lost faith in medicine when at last I decided to see what Tanlac would do for me. In about a week I could tell I was improving, and I continued to get better until now I feel so well I can't tell I ever had rheumatism at all. The swellings and pains have all disappeared and I am as active as I ever was in my life. I sleep soundly and when morning comes get up feeling just fine."

stances that its promoters conceived the idea of securing the co-operation of two American army officers of high rank. One of them has already flatly rejected the proposition, although he and his companion were offered 5,000,000 pounds sterling (normally about $24,800,000) at the outset, and another 5,000,000 at a later stage of the operations. The Russians hoped that by the presence of these two American officers, both of whom are well known as soldiers of marked talent and capable administrators, the campaign would assume the appearance of enjoying at least the tacit approval of the American Government.

General Torcom, of Armenia, who toured the United States in September, 1919, to secure recruits for an expedition from among Armenians living there, but who abandoned the plan when the United States War Department officials declined to lend him their support, had been designated by the organizers of the projected movement as the future president of the Armenian Republic of Erzerum, it is reported.

Those engineering the move belong to circles in Paris which so far have been regarded as representing General Wrangel's interests. At conferences it was agreed to transport a portion of General Wrangel's Crimean troops to a locality where they could be trained under the direction of one of the American Army officers involved. From that location transports were to carry the troops across the Black Sea to Trebizond. French warships and transports as well as British would help to carry and land the troops it was hoped.

Upon their landing, the advance upon Erzerum would start under General Torcom, who would appeal to his countrymen, the Armenians, for cooperation, as their liberator from Mustapha Kemal Pasha's yoke. With Erzerum secured, and Mustapha Kemal Pasha's nationalist bands sufficiently removed to permit freedom of movement, General Torcom was expected to mobilize the native Armenians, while General Wrangel's troops could resume their march into Russian Armenia and Azerbai Jan, led perhaps by a general whose services were enlisted from without.

SAYS DRY AGENT GOT $3,000

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 17.—In the trial of the four governments agents in the United States court here yesterday on charges in connection with illegal liquor transactions, John A. Guerron, former sales manager for the Triaca Company, the president and several other officials of which entered pleas of guilty yesterday, was the star witness. He testified that Charles Vincenti, president of the Triaca Company, gave Joseph E. Sainsbury, an agent of the Department of Justice, $3,000.

This money, Guerron said was given the government agent for protection.

"Sainsbury said this was not a two penny proposition, and he would agree to destroy his evidence in consideration of $5,000. To this Charles Vincenti demurred, but he finally agreed to pay $3,000 then and the other $2,000 when the evidence was produced. He handed me the money and I turned it over to Sainsbury," said the witness.

BRAKEMAN KILLED UNDER CAR WHEELS

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 17.—David E. Webb, of Goshen, Va., 21 years old a Chesapeake and Ohio brakeman, was instantly killed yesterday in front of the station at Staunton, when he fell between the wheels of a freight car. He attempted to step off the engine and his foot slipped, throwing him under the wheels of the car.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Alexandria people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. M. E. Williams, 523 Oronoco street, Alexandria, says: "I was so bad off with pains in my back I was fagged all worn out. I would put my hands on my back trying to relieve the pain through my kidneys. When I bent over I could hardly straighten again. This weakened me very much and made me so nervous I could hardly stand the least noise. Dizziness affected me when I bent over and everything would turn black. My kidneys didn't act at all right. I tried different things such as putting turpentine on the small of my back until it would blister. Nothing did me any good until I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. I kept getting better right along and was soon cured."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Williams had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo N. Y.
